

AFCEA

Our Vision

To be the premier information technology, communications, and electronics association for professionals in international government, industry and academia worldwide.

Our Mission

AFCEA is an international organization that serves its members by providing a forum for the ethical exchange of information. AFCEA is dedicated to increasing knowledge through the exploration of issues relevant to its members in information technology, communications, and electronics for the defense, homeland security and intelligence communities.

The North Carolina Chapter AFCEA presents awards to local teachers to help support scientific projects in their classrooms.

Our Goals

- Provide the recognized ethical forum that bridges information technologies and issues among government, industry and academic leaders worldwide.
- Provide value and benefits to members and communities of interest
- Actively engage governments on IT policy matters.
- Grow and maintain our active membership within the IT community.
- Provide Professional Development
- To preserve and foster a spirit of fellowship in all AFCEA activities.

The North Carolina Chapter AFCEA has garnered awards over the past two years in recognition for their “Outstanding” contributions to IT the people who reside in the Fort Bragg and Pope Air Force Base community.

These awards include:

2005 Model Chapter of the Year

Albert J. Myer Award, 2004 & 2005

The Albert J. Myer award is in recognitions of our new member recruitment efforts and retention of over 70% of our membership. The later shows we have a strong membership base who feel strongly about the great contributions that the North Carolina Chapter AFCEA makes to this “Outstanding” community!
